

Grand Jury Returns 91 Indictments: Additional Charges Announced for Anthony Allen Tate; Indicted on charges of Grand Theft Auto

Anton A. Bell, Commonwealth's Attorney for the City of Hampton, announced that a grand jury meeting in Hampton Circuit Court today returned indictments against 49 individuals charging 91 separate offenses.

Anthony Allen Tate, was indicted on charges of Grand Theft Auto. This is an additional charge added to indicted charges made in August of this year for Robbery and Abduction. All charges stem from an attack on a man on May 26, 2012. Tate remains in custody at the Hampton City Jail pending a trial in Circuit Court scheduled for October 31, 2012.

Donte Lorenzo Solomon was indicted on charges of maliciously shooting at an occupied vehicle, two counts of attempted maiming, two counts of use of a firearm as a second or subsequent offense and possession of a firearm by a violent felon. These events took place on July 23, 2012. He will be in custody at Hampton City Jail pending a trial scheduled for October 26, 2012.

Of those defendants indicted today, 30% face felony drug charges.
